

Did you know that the Scott Creek Library has a new collection of Memoirs?

A memoir is a special type of biography where the author writes about true stories from special moments in their own life. Here are just some of the books we have in our memoir section:

If you would like to check out one of these fabulous memoirs, log in to our Destiny page today and put one on hold! (don't forget to log in with your sd43 username and password!)
